Request for Thesis/Dissertation Embargo

Embargoing a thesis or dissertation is the delayed release or delayed availability of scholarly work due to patents pending, sensitive data, or pending publication. The embargo form must be completed by the student author and their thesis/dissertation advisor and submitted to designated archivists in Swem Library’s Special Collections Research Center. VIMS School of Marine Science students should also submit a copy of the form to Hargis Library.

Student (Printed): Gannon Connor
Advisor (Printed): William McNamara

Date to be released (from date signed): ___ 6 months ___ 1 year ___ 2 years ___ Other: 2 years
Reason for embargo: Ongoing research

Select all that apply:
___ Text only will be withheld from the public
___ Title, Abstract, and Text will be withheld from the public
___ Embargo applies to electronic version in W&M Digital Archive
___ Embargo applies to paper version in Swem Library or Hargis Library

We understand that the thesis/dissertation and any associated description will remain in the Swem Library (and Hargis Library, if applicable) until the date listed above. At the end of the embargo period, the thesis/dissertation will be available to researchers without restriction according to the access and use policies of the library. It is the responsibility of the student or advisor to extend the hold date, if needed. Requests to extend an embargo should be received in writing at least 30 days before the expiration of the embargo.

NON-EXCLUSIVE DISTRIBUTION LICENSE and HONORS THESIS AND PROJECT AVAILABILITY AGREEMENT

By signing and submitting this license, you (the "author" or "copyright owner") grant to College of William and Mary Libraries (W&M Libraries) at College of William and Mary (W&M) the non-exclusive right to reproduce, and distribute your submission (including the abstract) to the public as well as the right to migrate or convert your submission, without alteration of content, to any medium or format for the purpose of preservation or continued distribution.

W&M acknowledges that this is a non-exclusive license; any copyrights in the submission remain with the author or other copyright holder/s and subsequent uses of the submitted material by that person(s) are not restricted by this license.

The author agrees that College of William and Mary may keep more than one copy of this submission for purposes of security, back-up, and preservation.

The author represents that the submission covered by this license is his/her original work and that he/she has the right to grant this license to W&M Libraries at W&M. The author further represents that the submission does not, to the best of his/her knowledge, infringe upon any third party's copyright. If the submission contains material for which the author does not hold copyright the author represents that he/she has obtained unrestricted permission by authorization of the copyright holders, or by operation of the law, and that such third party material is clearly identified and acknowledged within the text or content of the submission. In the event of a subsequent dispute over the copyrights to material contained in this submission, the author agrees to indemnify and hold harmless W&M and its employees or agents for any uses of the material authorized by this license.

You certify that the version you are submitting is the same as that approved by your advisory committee.

If the submission is based upon work that has been sponsored or supported by any agency or organization other than College of William and Mary, the author represents that he/she has fulfilled any right of review or other obligation required by contract or agreement with the supporting entity.

If author does not select Creative Commons license during the submission process; W&M Libraries will make the submission available to the public using a Creative Commons Attribution / Non-commercial / No derivative works license accompanied by a copyright statement indicating the author’s continuing rights. College of William and Mary Libraries will take all reasonable steps to ensure that the author’s name remains clearly associated with the submission and that no alterations of the content are made.

I agree to the terms of the Non-Exclusive Distribution License:
