Average heights of delineated dune ridges are shown for North Parramore Island, arranged from west to east. Raw heights are NAVD88 derived from LiDAR, while adjusted heights are referenced to the swale floor elevation, which corresponds to MHHW on the Wachapreague tide station (+0.6 m NAVD88).